COMMENTS:

Under the Government Code, this bill would allow a county board of supervisors to impose a one-time fee upon a qualified employer of up to $300 for the services of a probation officer in the supervision of a qualified at-risk youth.

Under the Penal Code, this bill also would require a probation officer to provide verification of an employee's status as a qualified at-risk youth.

The June 22, 1999, amendments removed the tax credit that would have been allowed to a qualified employer located in Los Angeles County for the first year of employment of a qualified at-risk youth. This bill now contains only the provisions described above.

This bill no longer impacts the department's programs and operations or state income tax revenue.
